

Terms and conditions – poster competition for disposable BBQs

- The competition is open to people aged 16-25, in Lancashire only.
- The poster must be in an A4 size format.
- If you wish to use an image of an identifiable person, you must have their prior consent.
- You must be the originator and owner of the work.
- You are happy for Lancashire Fire & Rescue Service to use your work in relevant and appropriate promotions (wherever possible you will be clearly credited).
- The poster can either be designed on computer or by hand. Design skills will not form part of the judging process as we appreciate that people have access to different things or may be more creative on paper rather than digitally. The judges will use their judgement to choose a winner purely down to the wildfire safety messaging and creativeness of the design. The winning design will be designed professionally by our in-house designers if necessary so it is print-ready to be displayed at key beauty spots around Lancashire.
- There is no entry fee and no purchase necessary to enter this competition.
- Only one entry will be accepted per person.
- The closing date for entries will be 12th July 2020.
- There is no cash alternative and the prize is as follows: iPad 2019 (7th Gen 10.2in Wi-Fi 32GB) or an iPad of similar value and specification.
- Winners will be chosen by our three judges; George Martin, Prince's Trust National Liaison Officer, David Russel, Deputy Chief Fire Officer at Lancashire Fire and Rescue Service and Lancashire artist, Beki Melrose, and announced by 17th July 2020. The judges decision will be final.
- This promotion is in no way sponsored, endorsed or administered by, or associated with Facebook, Twitter or any other Social Network.

Your illustration will not be published or could be subsequently removed if it is deemed to be in breach of the above requirements.
