

How to plan ahead for flooding

Using the links below answer the following question:

1. What are the three levels of flood warning?
2. What can you do to prevent damage to your property during a flood?
3. Design a flood plan that is easy to use and gives clear and useful information (there are example of flood templates on the webpage below).

https://flood-warning-information.service.gov.uk/plan-ahead-for-flooding?utm_source=warning&utm_medium=gov.uk&utm_campaign=prepare&utm_content=national-view

<https://flood-warning-information.service.gov.uk/what-to-do-in-a-flood>

How to recover after a flood

Use the link below to answer the following questions:

<https://flood-warning-information.service.gov.uk/recovering-after-a-flood>

1. Name three places you can get help following a flood?
2. What harmful substances can flood water contain?
3. Design a house that would protected from future floods?

What happens after a flood

Read the information on the webpage below:

<https://flood-warning-information.service.gov.uk/what-happens-after-a-flood>

1. Create a timeline showing what happens following a flood. Include the time period, who is involved and what actions they take.