

River and sea levels in England- Interactive Map

River and sea levels are regularly checked by this network of monitoring stations. These levels can help you understand your flood risk now and in the next few days.

Click the link below:

<https://flood-warning-information.service.gov.uk/river-and-sea-levels>

1. Enter a postcode or place name and click on the nearest monitoring station.
2. What River are you viewing (e.g. River Crouch at Wickford)
3. What was the highest river level in the last 5 days?
4. What was the lowest river level in the last 5 days?
5. At which level is minor flooding possible?
6. What is the highest recorded level for the river?
7. How are river levels measured?
8. How often are river levels measured?
9. How might river levels affect flood risk?